

Bible 101 Genesis Class Notes — Lesson 3

Isaac & Rebekah Gen. 26: 6-11

Rebekah is a _____ woman.

Isaac becomes _____ and _____. Gen. 26:12-16

Esau was 40 when he married _____ Hittite women.

The names of Esau's wives were:

a. _____

b. _____

The old “Switcher—rooo

Rebekah puts _____ on his _____ and on his _____.

Gen. 27: 30-33

Jacob got two things from Esau.

a. _____

b. _____

The Importance of a Father's blessing

A Jewish father's blessing was a formal passing on of the father's _____ and _____ to his oldest son. This also meant that the oldest son was assuming the _____ of the family. In return, the oldest son received a _____ share of his father's _____.

Rebekah doesn't want Jacob to marry a _____ woman like his brother. Gen. 27:46

Esau marries a Canaanite woman to _____ his mother and father. Gen. 28:8—9

Esau marries _____ daughter.

The old “Switcher—rooo” two.

Jacob works _____ years so he can marry _____. He gets _____ instead.

Leah was the _____ sister and was supposed to be married first.

Jacob had to work an additional _____ years to get _____

Leah is very _____

Rachel is very _____

Rachel finally has a son. They name the child _____

Let's get ready to rumble. Gen. 32:22-32

Jacob wrestles at _____.

The word _____ means

“_____.”

So did Jacob physically wrestle with God? Gen. 32:24—25

Jacob's _____ is knocked out of socket.

Jacob desires a _____.

Jews do not eat the _____ that is on the hip socket because of this wrestling match.

Jacob's name is changed to _____. Gen. 32:28 _____ means “one who _____ with God”.

Jacob has _____ sons that ultimately become the _____.

_____ brothers sell him into slavery.